LALA RURAL COLLEGE, LALA

Department of Bengali Profile

Lala Rural College was established in 1964 in the southernmost part of Assam. The department of Bengali was one of the departments introduced in Lala Rural College, since its inception. The department started its journey with Sri Karunasindhu Dey. By the time, the department became enriched with some teachers who had contributed their best for the department and college such as Sri Bankim Nath and Sri Sunirmal Deb who is the lyricist of college song, Dr. Amiya Bandyopadhyay, and Sri Prithish Deshmukhya. Presently the department is striving over the years to equip students with knowledge and skills so that they become independent and employable.

The courses offered by the Department are:

- +2 level: Higher Secondary Courses (Affiliated to Assam Higher Secondary Education Council, Guwahati)
- B.A Programme: Three Year Degree Program (both Pass & Honours) CBCS & FYUG courses B.A programme 4-Years FYUG courses which is affiliated to Assam University (A central University), Silchar.

OBJECTIVES: -

1. The objectives of the department are to impart good & quality education in the field of Bengali Tradition, Literature & Culture.

VISION & MISSION

The department aims to educate students that they can update their knowledge of Bengali Literature, language and culture of our society.

- The department offers excellent learning facilities to enable the students to know about Bengali literature, language and culture of our society.
- The department gives utmost importance to build character and emotional ethics of the human being.

15. The Department conduct Parents/Guardians meet of Honours student in order to apprise them the progress development of their wards, and also to learn from them feedback on the performance of the department. The feedback is essential to gear up the department for its next stage of responsibility.

16. National Youth Day, 12th Jan on the occasion of the Birthday of Swami Vivekananda. In the session 2019-20 the department of Bengali, Lala Rural College, celebrated the Birth Ceremony of Swami Vivekananda as ‘Yuva Diwas’. A cultural function was organized by the students of the Department.

17. 19th May is Specially Significant for the people of this locality. Way back in 1961, eleven youth of the valley sacrifice their lives for the sake of mother tongue. To keep that spirit alive, the college has a martyr’s corner for the Sahids who laid their life for the mother language.

In spirit of this, the department of Bengali observed Sahid Divas in cooperation with Cultural Cell, and Choose 748 No. Lala Town Model L.P School as a venue where the children were made to understand the importance of Mother Tongue. Honours students of the department as part of extension Activities, taught the children the art of dancing, singing, and portrait making and finally

18. The Department of Bengali celebrated Rabindra Jayanti on 10th May 2019 (session-2018-2019). In the session 2021-2022, the department of Bengali celebrated Rabindra Jayanti in collaboration with the Cultural cell, IQSC of the college & Bangiya Sahitya Sanskriti Sanmmelan Lala branch & Ekanta Apon (cultural Organization). The program included a cultural function paying rich tribute to Tagore's composition. In the year 2023, the department of Bengali Celebrated 162th birthday of Rabindra Tagore. In collaboration with Cultural Cell, IQAC. The program was named as "Gitanjali". The student from different departs participated in this event. They showcase their performance with recitation, dance, and drama of Tagore's creation.

18) During the post Covid 19 period, in August 2020, the Department of Bengali took the initiative to assemble all the students of TDC 1st Semester (Under CBCS) and according to the syllabus was discussed exhaustively for their better appreciation and understanding.

Subsequently, in the meeting of induction program held on 01-09-2022, the department invited the newly admitted student of the TDC 1st Semester and exhaustively discusses course contents and outcome. This program grate enhanced their understanding of the subjects.

19. The Department initiates remedial classes for the slow learners. After each Unit Test, the department identifies the slow learner; Sits with them to sets out issues of aced by them, and accordingly addressees both issues.

20.The Department tries its best to exhort the honours students to be regular, honest, dedicated and punctual to their studies. So such, the department keeps record and data of honours students and their regularity, if a student fails to attend to a particular class and afterward request to grant his/her leave of absence the department verifies the genuineness of his/her cause and only then, when satisfied with his/her reason, grants the said student leave of absence etc.

21.As the name initiates most of the student admitted to the college belong to B.P.L category. Around 80% Student are under the fee waiver Scheme and as such the responsibility of the department also carries the department identifies all such students provide them study material, offers them book from the department library, donates books etc. so for a sincere student, poverty cannot be a bar for further studies.

COURSE OUTCOME OF BENGALI

The courses of Bengali literature have been divided into various part for the students of B.A course & FYUG (Program) in Bengali. Name of the courses to be study: Discipline Specific Course (DSC), Skill Enhancement Course (SEC), Ability Enhancement Core Course, Discipline Specific Elective (DSE), General Elective, Core Courses (CC) for Honours.

Students will be having a historical perspective to understand literature in general and Bengali literature in particular. Students will also have ability to relate literature with development of different religious sects in Bengal.

SPECIFIC PROGRAMME OUTCOMES OF BENGALI

1. Specific outcomes of this course are identified by what students learn and apply. The course imparts a deep and profound understanding about Bengali Language and Literature through the stages of evolution and transformation, in different perspectives, their valuable contribution to society.
2. Develop a strong concept of linguistics and basic Bengali grammar, history of old, medieval and modern Bengali Literature.
3. Students are enabled to transfer and apply the acquired concepts and principles to study different branches of Bengali literature that is fiction short story, essay and poetry.
4. The prospects of the B.A course & FYUG (Program) in Bengali is spelled out as follows:
 - a. Higher studies in reputed Universities.
 - b. Eligibility through state level school service examinations (T.E.T) and other sources as teaching faculty in schools at the Primary, Secondary and Higher Secondary Levels.
 - c. Scope of social, community and rural engagement through involvement with Government institution and NGOs.
 - d. This course has the potential to be successful in the workplace in the future by acquiring good Bengali writing and speaking ability.
 - e. To provide a holistic personality development by enabling the students to acquire a critical mindset and robust communication skills.
 - f. This programme enables students to qualify for jobs in the academia as Assistant Professors and teachers, as journalists- in print, electronic and new media copywriters, communication experts, bloggers, script writers, content writers, novelists, poets, dramatists, columnists and essayists.

Special Features of Department:

- The Department of Bengali has been following ICT classes, Teaching Method Since 2023
- All the Faculty members of the department are very young and energetic with good academic career.

Strength:

It is worthy to mention that last few years our honours students comparatively performing better result in our college as well as in university level. Apart from the result our students are also involving themselves in different activities of the college and proving their excellence.

Weakness-

Shortage of Teachers is the major problem in our department. Presently we have only two permanent and one part-time teachers.

Opportunities:

Literature is the mirror of history, culture and society. So, our responsibility is not only to teach the student in the class. At the same time, we are to involve ourselves with the greater society in and around us.

Challenges: Presently department is performing better result in semester examinations and We are going forward with the present positive and result. To develop career –oriented mind set in students. Moreover, the College offers Honours, MIL, SEC, IDC, DSM, DSC in all semesters and with limited resources, it is a challenge to satisfy students in terms of their progress.

Mass enrollment in the department and it itself is a challenging task.

Future Plan:

- i) The department plans to introduce innovating programmers and hence the excellence of the college and bring out the leadership quality amongst the learners.
- ii) We intend to organize workshops and short-term programmes related to language learning for learners from other colleges. The language laboratory may be utilizing for this purpose.
- iii) Department is also taking interest to invite expert teachers of Bengali from various universities and Institute to orient the students and explore their interest of Studying Bengali.
- iv) Department also has a plan to organize Guest lecture on syllabus-based topic to inspire the students and develop their knowledge of the subject.

Conclusion:

A tree is known by its fruits and the quality of fruits is depending on the soil, water, light and environment. Though the students of our college come from the rural areas and poor previous examination result, the Department of Bengali shows its performance in respect of examination result not only in Lala Rural College but also in university level in comparison to the other colleges of this area. Still, we are hoping to go ahead with determination to keep up the examination result and other activities of the department.

THANK YOU ALL
