

Cultural Cell, IQAC

Lala Rural College

The need of today's age is to develop versatility of the students. Only academic progress is not enough for all round growth of a student. And for all round development of student's personality, participation of students in different extra-curricular activities including cultural activities is required. With the introduction of NEP 2020, cultural activities are an integral part of curriculum.

Students participate in cultural activities for a wide variety of reasons such as for recreation, for personal growth and development, as a means of expression, to learn new skills, to meet new people and to pass on cultural tradition. Lala Rural College has a rich heritage of nurturing, nourishing and showcasing talents. To foster the participation of the students in various cultural activities, Cultural Cell has been formed in the institution.

Cultural Cell, IQAC, Lala Rural College is formed 2017. It was reconstructed in 2021 vide IQAC Resolution No. 10 dated 18th March 2021 with the following members:
